

The ESEAC (Exceptional Student Education Advisory Committee) of Duval County.

The ESEAC is here for families of children in special education. The Committee advises Duval County Public Schools Exceptional Student Education (DCPS/ESE) Department of unmet needs within the county and to provide insight and direction from a parent and community point of view to the DCPS/ESE department. The ESEAC also presents a series of free workshops for families of Duval County Public Schools students receiving ESE services.

ESEAC membership is free and includes parents, teachers, Exceptional Student Education staff, administrators, and community agency representatives. We are looking for members to give input on special education issues and learn more about ESE issues.

Would you be interested? Please come to our next meeting.
